COORDINATOR: Rick Palese

If you intend to earn academic credit for The Midwest Experience, December 19-22, 2012, (VanderCook course #7402), you should be aware of the following policies of VanderCook College of Music:

CREDIT: To be eligible to receive graduate level credit for course #7402, a student must have a degree in a music-related discipline. Any exceptions must be approved directly by VanderCook College of Music.

To earn credit, a student must: 1) attend sessions totaling at least 12.5 hours for each semester hour of credit taken, and 2) complete a notebook summarizing and critiquing all sessions, including copies of all handouts and other supporting materials. The deadline for notebook submission is January 22, 2013, one month after the conclusion of the conference.

More information is available at the conference or from VanderCook College. Additionally, each student is encouraged to keep a journal documenting the sessions he or she has attended.

REGISTRATION: Students interested in taking course #7402 must register no later than January 22, 2013. Full tuition must be enclosed with registration. Registrations postmarked after this date will not be accepted for credit. Please registration directly with VanderCook College of Music.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION: If you have questions, please do not hesitate to contact Rick Palese, Director of Professional and Continuing Education at 312.788.1133 or rpalese@vandercook.
