Witness the architectural artistry of pre-industrialized construction!

This home is “appreciation-ready!”

Your personal retreat from contemporary uniformity!

This home features:

- Convenient 1.0 mile walk to the White Plains commuter railroad station. And it’s mostly a flat and level walk!
- Original modern furnishings, also seen on Downton Abbey!
- Fully installed, fully non-functioning Free Music Machine!

Amenities include:

- Rare & desirable en-suite sanitation station (for family members battling syphilis)!
- Perfect entertainment site for developing an intergenerational social life!
- “State of the art” free-standing woodburning stove!

This property boasts:

- In/Out signs: a perfect example of 1920’s “Smart Home” technology!
- Grainger-enhanced repair solutions include “Ball of String Upgrades” throughout the house.
- This isn’t just a house; it’s a living library of vocational wisdom, personally curated by Grainger’s mother, Rose!

Curt Ebersole has served as the Conductor/Music Director (John P. Paynter Memorial Chair) of the Westchester Symphonic Winds since 2008, fostering its exponential growth and success over the past eighteen years. He led that ensemble in their Carnegie Hall debut in 2023, their Lincoln Center debut in 2010 at Avery Fisher Hall, and in convention and exchange performances in Chicago, Poughkeepsie, Stamford, and Syracuse, as well as commission premieres by Michael Markowski and Viet Cuong, and annual sold-out summer festival performances at Caramoor Center for Music and the Arts (Katonah, NY). He earned an undergraduate degree from Northwestern University and graduate degrees from Northwestern and SUNY-Purchase. He retired from Northern Valley Regional High School (Old Tappan, NJ) in 2013 and now serves on the faculty at The Masters School, in Dobbs Ferry, New York. Ebersole has served as a guest conductor and clinician for scores of county, regional, all-state, university, and adult community ensembles, including the US Army Field Band and the West Point Band, and multiple performances at Carnegie Hall. He is the founder of the Music Educators of Bergen County Wind Conducting Symposium, and his adjudication and presentation appearances span the map, including everything from regional festivals to state and national conventions, including the Midwest Clinic in 2009. He presented his TED Talk, Framing Failure, at TEDxOneonta in 2017, and his stand-up comedy routine, Identity Crisis, at Comic Strip Live in New York City in 2019. He also serves as a volunteer tour guide and docent at the Percy Grainger Home & Studio in White Plains, New York. Ebersole is a native of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, and a current resident of White Plains, New York. In addition to his busy musical life, he enjoys riding America’s fastest and tallest roller coasters. He is not, nor has ever been, a real estate agent.
