

THE RED CARPET

- K-12 Private Girls School in Perth
- 400 girls have a music lesson each week
- 19 ensembles – choral/instrumental

Paul McCarthy is currently the Director of Music at Penrhos College in Perth, Western Australia.

After receiving a music scholarship to Perth Modern School and completing his music education degree at the University of Western Australia, Paul has demonstrated a passion for music performance and music theatre, working extensively in this field in addition to his role as a Director of Music. In addition to music directing numerous school and community theatre productions, his professional performance credits include performing as a keyboardist in the National touring productions of Wicked and the Cameron Macintosh production of Miss Saigon.

Paul received a NEITA award nomination for National Teaching in Excellence and regularly adjudicates music festivals. Paul was a Western Australian representative at the 2006 Australian National Review of Music Education, and is a current AISWA representative on the Music Course Advisory Committee (CAC) for the School Curriculum and Standards Authority (SCSA), a WACE performance examiner, a member of the ASME (Australian Society of Music Education) WA State Council, and an appointee to the WACE Music Examination writing panel.

Paul has presented clinics on music education in his home state of Western Australia, New South Wales, South Australia and Queensland, and is delighted to be afforded the opportunity to present at the 2015 Midwest Clinic in Chicago.
