GARY CZAPINSKI, DCI Hall of Fame

Gary Czapinski taught master classes as visiting faculty, teaching the performance of outdoor pageantry production to educators across the US, Canada, Japan and Europe. He is a designer and coordinator for championship marching bands and winter guards and famous for innovation in staging of winds and creative use of stage sets, a prop master.

Gary was an original Board member Bands of America and team that created the scoring system. He taught undergraduate classes at DePaul University and Vander Cook College. Hundreds have graduated from his Private Design Workshops and Spacial Awareness Contemporary Basics Classes. He wrote 25 DCI Finalist shows in 15 years and is a member of the DCI Hall of Fame. He is an adjudicator for band, winter guard and DCI. He is Education Director of the Midwest Color Guard Circuit and President of Visual Musical Designs, Chicago, IL.

MARIE CZAPINSKI, BOA Hall of Fame, WGI Hall of Fame

Marie Czapinski is an expert in the field of pageantry, a co-founder of Winter Guard International and member of the WGI Hall of Fame. She has been with Bands of America since its inception and is a member of the Hall of Fame. She is a Board Member of the Midwest Color Guard Circuit for 30 years and a member of the Hall of Fame. She is an adjudicator for DCI, WGI, BOA and independent events.

She has taught championship drum corps, marching bands and winter guards. She has trained judges in the US, Japan, Canada and Europe. Well known for her outstanding clinics, she never allows her former successes to overshadow her desire to bring exciting innovations to the world of pageantry. This creative freshness has become her undisputed trademark. Whether adjudicating or giving a lecture, she delivers a clear, understandable, heartfelt and knowledgeable message to the recipients.
