Miles Osland has distinguished himself as an educator, recording and performing artist, author, arranger and composer. Currently the Director of Jazz Studies and Professor of Saxophone at the University of Kentucky, he has appeared throughout North, South America, Europe and Asia as a guest conductor and performing artist for Selmer Saxophones and Rico Reeds. His compositions have been recognized and supported by fellowships from the National Endowment for the Arts and the Kentucky Arts Council. Sea Breeze Jazz has submitted ten of his recordings for Grammy nominations. Six books authored by Mr. Osland are available through Dorn and Alfred Publications and his scholarly work (which includes over 80 published articles on saxophone technique and jazz improvisation) can be found in a variety of publications including Downbeat, Jazz Times, Saxophone Journal, and many others.

The Osland Saxophone Quartet is a chamber ensemble based in Lexington, Kentucky. Its members have brought together musical experiences from the East and West Coasts, as well as the Mid-West. The members of the quartet are Miles Osland (soprano), Lisa Parent Osland (tenor), Dr. Doug Drewek (alto) and Larry Nelson (baritone). The quartet is unique in that its repertoire spans both classical and jazz genres. They are dedicated to diversity, leaving no musical stone unturned.
