Music publishers are requested to send complimentary scores of new band, orchestra, and jazz ensemble publications to The Midwest Clinic Performance Coordinating Committee members and conductors of the performing organizations. A list of names and addresses will be provided.

11. GENERAL CONDITIONS

a. Subletting Booth Space

Exhibitors may not assign, sublet, or apportion all or any part of their space, and may not advertise or display goods or services other than those manufactured, distributed, or sold by their company in the regular course of business.

b. Unclaimed Booth Space

Any booth space not claimed and occupied or for which no special arrangements have been made prior to 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday, December 14, may be resold or reassigned without any obligation on the part of The Midwest Clinic for any refund whatsoever.

c. Contractor and Labor Coordination

The service contractor will have control of all inbound and outbound traffic so as to prevent any congestion in the loading and unloading areas, in the aisles, and in any freight traffic pattern area. The service contractor will have complete control of all labor, scheduling, and coordination of labor for the purpose of the orderly erection, management, and dismantling of the exhibition.

d. Electrical Information

In accordance with the regulations prescribed by the Fire Prevention Bureau of the Chicago Fire Department, no combustible material may be used to decorate a display. Storage of cartons, boxes, wrapping paper, etc. behind booths and/or under tables is strictly prohibited. All cloth must be flameproof and stand a flameproof test. Open flames, butane-gas, and heating appliances are not permitted. Microwave ovens may be used. An exhibitor shall not make any electrical installation or connection of any appliance or equipment to the building electrical system. All electrical connections to the building electrical system or extensions shall be made only by a facility-certified electrician.

e. Guard Service

Guard service is provided by The Midwest Clinic on a 24-hour basis from move-in through move-out. Reasonable precautions are taken to protect property, but The Midwest Clinic cannot ensure the safety of persons or the protection of property. The Midwest Clinic strongly recommends that each exhibitor secure a rider policy to cover all booth and display items during transportation to and from the convention as well as during installation, show dates, and dismantling.

f. Exhibitor Representatives

Each exhibiting firm/college must provide an attendant in its booth during the open hours of the conference as defined in Specification #2. All attendants must be bona fide employees or clinicians of the exhibitors. False certification of individuals as exhibitor representatives, misuse of exhibitor badges, or any method or device used to assist unauthorized individuals to enter the exhibit hall will be sufficient just cause for expelling the violators from the conference, barring them from further entrance into the exhibit floor, and/or removing the exhibit from the exhibit floor without obligation on the part of The Midwest Clinic or refund of any fees. The exhibiting organization, for itself, its employees, and its agents, waives all rights to any claim for damages against The Midwest Clinic and its officers, agents, and employees for any failure to enforce the provisions of this paragraph.

Within the designated exhibit area, promotion of goods and services, or conducting of business related thereto, is limited to registered exhibitors and exhibitors' representatives and only for those goods and services registered for the exhibit.

All exhibitors are required to submit a list of personnel who will staff their booth(s). Please use the following exhibitor badge allotment:

Booths (Badges)

1 (4), 2 (8), 3 (12), 4 (16), 5 (20)

Six or more booths will receive (2) badges per each additional booth. Additional personnel may preregister by December 1 at the rate of $150 per badge. Additional personnel requests submitted after December 1, including during the conference, will cost $175 per badge.

g. Audio and Audiovisual Sound Effects

Audiovisual, audio, and other sound and attention-getting devices and effects will be permitted only in those locations and in such intensity as in the opinion of The Midwest Clinic do not interfere with the activities of neighboring exhibitors. Instruments played for the purpose of demonstration should be played for brief periods and at a reasonable sound level. Audio visual equipment must be equipped with earphones. Every effort will be made to divide the exhibits into noise level areas. Operation of equipment being demonstrated may not create noise levels objectionable to neighboring exhibitors. This will be strictly enforced.

h. Exhibit Hall Floor Sales

Representatives may demonstrate, explain, or show their product, publications, or services within their exhibit area but may not conduct any sales which require the exchange of money on the exhibit hall floor without collecting, recording, and reporting the appropriate taxes as prescribed by the Illinois Department of Revenue and the Internal Revenue Service. The Midwest Clinic assumes no responsibility for and shall not be liable in any respect relating thereto.

i. Prohibited Activities

Products and services to be exhibited are to be listed on the booth application form; no other products or services may be exhibited. Distribution of noisemakers of any kind is not permitted. All exhibitors distributing approved "stick-ons" may not place the "stick-on" on the attendees' badge. Distribution of refreshments or other products for consumption on the premises not manufactured by or specifically related to the product of the exhibitor will not be permitted.

Exhibitors may only distribute materials from their booths. Anyone distributing materials in the aisles, concourse, or lobbies will be requested to stop this activity immediately.

j. Meetings and Social Functions

Association meetings, sales meetings, and social functions may be scheduled at McCormick Place West and official conference hotels at times that will not interfere with major programs offered by The Midwest Clinic. The online system for requesting such functions will open by July 1. All requests for meeting space must be submitted to The Midwest Clinic through this system. Exhibitors requesting meeting space will be required to pay a rental charge. Rate information will be announced when the system opens. Soliciting Midwest

Clinic registrants to attend events in conflict with The Midwest Clinic events is prohibited.

- k. Unauthorized Concerts, Performances, or Clinics
Concerts, performances, clinics, and mini-clinics, held in any area of the conference hotels, including lobbies and exhibit halls, without the permission of The Midwest Clinic are prohibited.

12. LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

Neither the exhibit facility, nor The Midwest Clinic, nor any of the service contractors will be responsible for loss of or damage to any property in storage, while in transit to or from, and within the confines of the exhibit hall even though it may at anytime be under the temporary control or direction of The Midwest Clinic or its service contractors.

At the conclusion of the conference, the exhibiting organization must surrender space occupied by it in the same condition it was in at the time the space was initially occupied. The exhibitor is responsible for all damage to the exhibit hall and for the defense and payment of any and all claims, demands, and suits on account of any alleged injury or death to individuals, or damage to property, occurring in the exhibitor's booth space or elsewhere because of the acts or omissions of the exhibitor, its officers, employees, agents, licensees, guests, or contractors.

The exhibitor agrees to protect, indemnify, defend, save, and keep The Midwest Clinic and the Metropolitan Pier and Exposition Authority, and their respective officers, employees, and agents, forever harmless from any damage or charges imposed for violation of any law or ordinance, whether occasioned by the negligence of the exhibitor or those holding under the exhibitor, as well as to strictly comply with the applicable terms and conditions contained in the agreement between the Metropolitan Pier and Exposition Authority and The Midwest Clinic regarding the exhibition premises, a copy of which is available upon written request and is incorporated herein by this reference; and, further, the exhibitor shall at all times protect, indemnify, defend, save, and forever keep harmless The Midwest Clinic and the Metropolitan Pier and Exposition Authority, and their respective officers, employees, and agents, against and from any and all loss, costs, damage, liability, or expense arising from or out of or by reason of any accident or other occurrence to anyone, including the exhibitor, its agents, employees, and business guests, which arise from or out of or by reason of said exhibitor's occupancy and use of the exhibition premises or a part thereof. Exhibitor understands that neither The Midwest Clinic nor the Metropolitan Pier and Exposition Authority shall have any responsibility to the Exhibitor. Further, any claims of any kind or nature which an exhibitor may have and desires to assert against The Midwest Clinic and or the Metropolitan Pier and Exposition Authority must first be submitted in writing within fourteen (14) days after the end of the Conference to which it relates or from which it arises, or such claim shall be forever barred.

The Midwest Clinic strongly recommends that each exhibitor secure a rider policy to cover all booth and display items during the transportation to and from this convention as well as during installation, show dates, and dismantling.

13. VIOLATIONS

Violations of any of these regulations on the part of the exhibitor, its employees, or agents shall, at the option of The Midwest Clinic, annul the right to occupy space and such an exhibitor will forfeit to The Midwest Clinic all monies paid.

14. INCLUSION AND REFERENCE TO SPECIFICATION AND CONTRACT TERMS AND MASTER LICENSE AGREEMENT

The exhibitor expressly agrees to be bound by all of the terms and conditions, and specifications resulting from the master license agreement between The Midwest Clinic, the Metropolitan Pier and Exposition Authority, and the City of Chicago. A copy thereof shall be furnished to the exhibitor upon written request.

15. LOGO

The Midwest Clinic logo has been copyrighted and is protected by and under the U.S. copyright laws against its unauthorized use. The Midwest Clinic reserves the right to exclusive use in all respects. By becoming an exhibitor, the applicant acknowledges such exclusivity, and, further, agrees, not to use said logo without prior written consent of The Midwest Clinic.
